

Bendigo Bank Telco Offer Power of Attorney Form

Appointing an attorney does not change the customer's liability to Community Telco for their account, including the payment of bills.

Instructions

- You'll need to provide evidence that you have an executed and valid power of attorney from the person holding the account
- You'll also need to provide copies of three pieces of identification with this completed form. This must include one piece of identification with a photo (e.g. a passport or driver's licence).
- When you've filled in this form, return it to us by fax or mail:
Fax: 1800 442 919
Postal address: Community Telco, PO Box 1187, Bendigo VIC 3552

This form will print in a faxable format without the grey background.

1 Eligibility

Only fill in this form if you have been given the responsibility to act on behalf of this customer in a legal and validly executed document termed a power of attorney. Do not fill in this form if you would like to become an authorised account contact.
